

The Per Niente

Per Niente Club

maggio I, due mila cinque

Volume I, Issue V

Rack 'em up with Danny DiLiberto

© 2004 Steve Booth, OnePocket.org

For years one of pool's top all-around players, Danny is one of the few original Johnston City champions still active in the game – although his main gig lately has been his commentary work for Accu-stats. Danny is just putting the wrap on a major book project in collaboration with Jerry Forsyth, which should be available soon. OnePocket.org caught up with him on a teaching and exhibition swing through Boston.

Inside this issue:

| | |
|-----------------------|----------|
| Sacco and Vanzetti | 2 |
| Maggiore's Corner | 3 |
| Arens's Cucina | 4 |
| Terrignoli's Contest | 4 |
| Letters to the Editor | 5 |
| Spiegelman on Golf | 6 |
| The Story | 7/8 |
| Sicilia | 10 |
| Old Photo Album | 11 12 |

DANNY DILIBERTO CAPTURES FLA. BCA STATE CROWN

(Continued from Front Page)

DILIBERTO

(Sept. 13) by a count of 100-27. Then on Friday evening, Danny bested 'Buster' Pickett by a 100-22 margin. On Saturday, George McCorquodale was Dan's third victim as the steady-shooting cue star gained a 100-29 win.

"Danny's first win came at the expense of Steve Cook whom he met and defeated on Friday..."

...LATER IN THE DAY, LANGSTON MET

Lewis 'Lefty' Goff, popular mgr. of the fine Mabry Cue lounge, and as 'Lefty' posted 99, and (Cont'd on Page 9 - Column 1)

The Danny Di Liberto interview on pages 2 & 3 was taken from the WEB Site onepocket.com.

This issue contains a few of the Q/A's from that interview. To view the complete interview, just go to that web site.

Most of us have a few memories of Danny. I remember him most as a guy who was good at anything that he tried. Whether it be boxing, baseball, bowling or riding a unicycle. It did not take Danny long to master what ever he attempted to accomplish. He certainly was blessed with talent.

Joe Di Leo

Per Niente